

Welcome to the Second Edition of the CCJHowler

Do you know that Care Corps will be at CCJ10?

What is Care Corps you ask? Care Corps (pronounced Care Core) is a team that recognizes and encourages the spiritual expression of our camp participants; and promotes an integrated spiritual dimension to the Jamboree experience.

Come join in the "Spirit of Jamboree" which is an award that challenges each unit to live up to the Cubs' Promise and Law. It is an award that promotes faith, friendship, service, conservation, teamwork and fun.

Sub-camp chaplains will serve as Jamboree ambassadors and be spiritual advisors as needed, for our camp participants.

The Care Corps team will post a Thought for the Day on the bulletin boards at each sub-camp and will host at least 2 Scouts' Own during the Jamboree week.

Scouter Harry has his team in place and we will be taken good care of and in good hands.

Great Program for Everyone

Have YOU ever wanted to launch a rocket? Have YOU ever caught cray-fish? Wondered about the pioneer craft of tin-punching? Have YOU ever made paper? The list goes on and on and on. . .

And don't forget if you have any questions about program be sure to ask – the program at CCJ10 is about YOU trying something new, or something YOU love doing and especially it's about YOU having fun. . . Program will be a great way to add to your 100 greater experiences and 100 greatest memories.

What if your Group is Not Coming, but you or a youth want to???

Your cub pack is not attending to CCJ10, but you want to come and enjoy the experience of a Jamboree?

There are a couple of options:

- Come on your own or with a cub friend and you can make a "pack of new friends" by being in the composite group
- Come as a leader to help lead a composite group - a group comprised of youth that is for a few leaders or a few youth who do not have the ratio but want to attend CCJ10
- If you are over 18 years old, come as an Offer of Service (OOS) where you will enjoy the week by assisting or running a program activity, special project or in a subcamp.

Let's Set a World Record

The Special Events Team wants our camp to be one for the book... the Guinness Book that is. . . Of World Records! Have any ideas on how we can do that? If you do, just drop a quick note at info@ccj10.com or post it on our CCJ10 Facebook group.

Blogger

Do you have a passion for writing? Are you eager to help celebrate 100 years of Scouting in Ontario? Are you planning to CCJ10? If so, this contest is for you!!

We are looking for cubs to submit a monthly blog to be posted on our CCJ10 webpage. The blog will include details of how you (and your pack, if it is attending) are preparing for CCJ10. This is your opportunity to share with the Cubbing community your love for the organization and to help build excitement for CCJ10. The top blogs, as chosen by the communications team, will be posted to the CCJ10 website and voted on by you! The 2 whose blogs receive the most votes will become the official bloggers during CCJ10.

If you are interested in this position, please submit a blog entry of 350 words or less telling us what Cubs means to you or what you are looking forward to at the Jamboree.

Your blog needs to be creative so have fun and express your originality!

Submissions must be received by April 25, 2010 at midnight and can be sent to info@ccj10.com

In order to be eligible for this competition you must be a youth member (and remain so through the end of camp) and be registered to attend CCJ10.
